

Power Words from
Who Will Roar If I Go?

By Paige Jaeger

“Words that are harder, make us smarter!”

Avian - about birds
Canopy - tree branches overhead
Dwindling - declining in number Extendable - able to reach
Extinction - vanishing species
Fledglings - baby birds
Habitat - living area
Hideous - ugly
Meander - move around
Opposable - able to move and touch
Plumage - bird feathers
Resplendent - shine pretty
Snout - nose
Stunning - beautiful
Swagger - walk slowly side-to-side
Tapered - long, cone-like Terrain - earth we walk on Thrive - live very well
Vanishing - disappearing
Vivid - bright

*Your child had an author visit today in Library.
Paige Jaeger’s books on endangered species can be purchased on Amazon, Audible, or in your local bookstore.*

Power Words from
Will You Miss Us If We Go?

By Paige Jaeger

“Words that are harder, make us smarter!”

Adorn - to wear fancy decoration
Breach - to jump out of the water
Circumglobal - all around the earth
Dignified - important looking
Elusive - able to hide and sneak away
Foraging - looking for food
Habitat - dwelling area
Lair - home den
Nocturnal - awake at night
Ordeal - something hard or complicated
Peril - something bad that happens
Poachers - people who illegally take protected animals
Pygmy - very small animal
Reclusive - like to be alone
Racketeer - person doing dishonest activities
Roam - to wander around
Soar - to fly high in the sky
Solitary - like to be alone

*Your child had an author visit today in Library.
Paige Jaeger’s books on endangered species
can be purchased on Amazon, Audible, or in your local bookstore.*